December 13, 2017 Speaker

Greg Cullison, Big Sky Associates

Greg Cullison is COO at Big Sky Associates, Inc., a security consultancy in Washington DC. In this capacity he stood up a new market-facing vertical and has helped numerous organizations initiate or improve their insider threat programs. He is a certified Insider Threat Program Manager by Carnegie Mellon University and is a member of the Insider Threat subcommittee at the Intelligence and National Security Alliance (INSA). He is a frequent speaker on the topic and created an online course to teach companies in the Defense Industrial Base to comply with the National Industrial Security Policy Operating Manual (NISPOM) Change 2 requirements for insider threat programs.

November 15, 2017 Speaker

Seth Lucci, GuidePoint Security, LLC

Seth Lucci is a Senior Security Consultant at GuidePoint Security. Since 2001, his career has included experience in multiple disciplines and includes over 10 years as a Federal contractor supporting Information Technology (IT) security, information assurance, configuration, program and project management, systems engineering, quality assurance, finance, and business development. He is a subject matter expert (SME) in implementing NIST-based risk management frameworks in the commercial and federal workspace. Seth has been a trusted advisor to C-suite executives in addressing their needs for IT strategic plans, IT transformations, IT risk management, governance, frameworks, and business process improvements.

More recently, Seth has been consulting clients on Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) reviews and compliance. Some of his clients include: NGA, DIA, NATO, and Freddie Mac. Seth's compliance-related initiatives focus on a myriad of associated federal (DOD and IC), as well as commercial standards such as: FISMA, STIGs, NIST 800 Series, DCID 6/3, ICD 503, PCI DSS and ISO.

Seth earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Marketing from Radford University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Marymount University.

InfoSec Observations from the Life of a Security Consultant

What's the difference between companies that have solid, mature information security programs and ones that seem to be constantly struggling to keep up? After working with many companies across multiple verticals and varied sizes, there are plenty of lessons to be learned from observations made across the industry. We will be taking a closer look at a few key information security trends and how you and your organization can improve your information security posture.
